Re: Rev. Ron Jutze

Dear Pastor,

I want to recommend to you Ron Jutze, who has been helping my father in the faith, Dr. Hilton Sutton, in a general manager role at Hilton Sutton Ministries. Ron has also pastored and has done a great job feeding the sheep and managing God's business. He is a seasoned minister and has been to hell and back, as we say, over various issues, fighting life through. He is living proof that he knows what it's all about.

Ron has a great word for the local church—a word of encouragement to give you a boost and help you go to the next level. Brother Jutze is low-maintenance, easy to work with, and his seasoning comes through in all of his business dealings. Please pray about having him in your church as an additional blessing to your ministry.
