

April 9, 2008

To Whom It May Concern:

After nearly 30 years of ministry I have recognized that there are some people I have come to know who stand out as exceptional people with deep rooted convictions and a passion to lift people to a better quality of life.

Having known Ron Jutze for many years I have seen him as one of those exceptional people. He is a leader who has a very powerful anointing in his life. My experience with him has demonstrated that he is a man of integrity with a passion for people and for God. He is also a very devoted husband and father.

I have watched him be a friend to many ministries, including my own, giving of himself and his talents. He has remained faithful to the calling of God and to a powerful ministry of the Word.

It is without any reservation that I recommend his ministry knowing that he will have a significant impact as a speaker and minister of the Word.

Sincerely,

Dr. Dennis Burke