Born in 1969 and reared in Cleveland, OH, Darrell Sutton was called to preach in 1983. As a teenager of 18, Jesus appeared to him in a dream declaring to him where the pathway of service would lead and what specific gifts and demonstrations would be manifested in his ministry. By his 30th birthday, he had traveled to 32 nations of the world and more than 3000 cities outside the United States preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ with signs following.

Darrell is a graduate of Southern Baptist Seminary, post-graduate work he finished while serving America in the Marine Corp. After his discharge from the Corp, Darrell moved to Jordan to study more about the Islamic beliefs and movement in the world. While living with an Iraqi family in the country of Jordan, he attended a language school where he majored in the Arabic language, minored in the Quran, and learned to read, write and speak the Syriac dialect.

He successfully established three underground fellowships in Saudi Arabia, pioneered several bible studies in the Middle East, and has traveled for more than two decades preaching camp-meetings, conferences, and revivals across America.

After serving 7 years in the United States Marine Corps (1987-1994), Darrell became an evangelist-at-large for Jimmy Swaggart Ministries. Through Darrell's ministry with JSM, an invitation was extended for him to preach to a family of committed Christians in Red Cloud, Nebraska. So, in the spring of 1998, he and his wife, Tiffany began evangelistic meetings which resulted in the birth of Revival Tabernacle, from which has developed a network of churches he currently oversees.

He joined the advisory board of Hilton Sutton World Ministries in 2001 and subsequently began writing articles for the magazine and teaching and preaching alongside "Dad" Sutton in various conferences.

Along with his connection as Associate Minister for HSWM, Pastor Darrell is the Director of the Semitica Language Academy. He teaches and tutors the ancient classical languages of Latin, Greek, Hebrew, Arabic, Aramaic (Syriac) and works directly from the original sources when lecturing on Islamic history and eschatology in churches, junior colleges, and bible institutes and universities.

Aside from his biblical and pastoral work, he has published numerous articles on Classical scholars and their work in the field of textual criticism, as well as ancient Roman authors and their Latin texts. Moreover, he routinely reviews papers, articles, and journal submissions for several ancient Near East specialists and Greek and Latin scholars who are professors in universities in the USA and abroad.

He is married to the beautiful, anointed Tiffany Sutton. He met Tiffany in Baton Rouge, LA at Family Worship Center after he had returned from the Middle East. She was a student at Oral Roberts University and a traveling singer with the front-line singers.
